THE HIDDEN CAMERAS HEADLINE SUMMERWORKS

Strongest Music Series line-up marks 20 years of Canada's best arts fest
August 5-15, 2010

Toronto's 20th annual SummerWorks Theatre Festival kicks-off August 5th with 42 plays, offsite performances, walking tours, workshops of plays-in-development, youth activities, and a slew of concerts. While being the largest juried theatre festival in Canada, SummerWorks takes great pride in offering concerts every night during the ten-day fest.

This year, SummerWorks welcomes The Hidden Cameras for two intimate and theatrical evenings at the LOT Mainstage Theatre, August 5th and 6th.

"The Hidden Cameras are one of this country's most theatrically delicious bands," says Michael Rubinfeld, Artistic Producer of the festival. He adds, "They're a perfect match for SummerWorks, and I'm really excited to be able to welcome them onto our stage."

In its third year, the SummerWorks Music Series gives audiences a taste of both local and national indie rock. The SummerWorks Music Series, sponsored by CBC Radio3 and Exclaim! hosts ten evenings of music featuring some of Canada's best indie musicians.

All concerts will be held at new SummerWorks venue, The Lower Ossington Theatre (The LOT). An arts space located at 100A Ossington Avenue. Tickets for LOT main stage shows are $10 and pay-what-you-can at the Performance in (Lower LOT stage). The Hidden Cameras are on-sale now at Rotate This, Soundscapes and artsboxoffice.ca

Full Music Series line-up will be announced at a later date.
